WELCOME

What God says about your child

Dear Mama, dear Papa,

Some days the reports, the waiting rooms and the worries are loud. On those days, I needed something louder: what God says about my child.

These 31 Bible verses are the ones I spoke over my own child — about healing, deliverance, restoration, speech, understanding, peace and strength. Each day has the verse, a simple explanation of what God is saying, and a declaration for you to speak out loud.

Say it over your child as they sleep, on the school run, or while you cook. Put their name in every declaration. And end each one the way I do:

“The Word says it — and I say Amen.” ♥

With love, Tris Eliverson

How to use this book

Five minutes a day. One verse. One declaration. Spoken in faith over your child.

1 Read the verse

Read it slowly — out loud if you can. All verses are from the King James Version (KJV).

2 Understand what God is saying

The simple explanation helps you see what the verse means for your child today.

3 Speak the declaration

Put your child's name in the blank and declare it with faith. Lay your hand on them if they are comfortable with touch.

4 Say Amen

“The Word says it — and I say Amen.” Amen means “so be it”. You are agreeing with God.

5 Write it down

Use the lines at the bottom of each page to note prayers, answers and small victories.
